COMPANY PROFILE

OUR FAMILY STORY

A recipe passed down.
A legacy carried forward.

Our story began before Old Klang House had a name. It began with our grandfather's Bak Kut Teh recipe, passed down to us as a treasured part of our family heritage.

For us, this recipe is more than a way to prepare a meal. It is a connection to our roots and a legacy we want to keep alive. We created OKH to share it with others and carry it forward for generations to come.

Established in 2023, our first branch opened in Klang, Malaysia, followed by our second in Gading Serpong, Indonesia. With a Thailand branch planned for 2027, our journey continues, guided by the recipe that started it all.

THE STORY OF BAK KUT TEH

From a hearty meal to a lasting tradition.

Bak Kut Teh means 'meat bone tea' in Hokkien. Pork is slowly cooked with herbs and spices to create the comforting dish closely associated with Klang.

Its early story is often linked to Chinese migrant labourers around Port Klang, who sought a filling meal for demanding work. Over time, it became part of Klang's culinary identity.

Today, OKH carries this tradition forward through our grandfather's recipe, sharing a taste of Klang while preserving the family legacy behind every bowl.

SIGNATURE DISHES

The flavours that define us.

Malaysian-style Bak Kut Teh

Our grandfather's recipe, carried forward in a rich herbal broth slowly simmered for approximately 8-10 hours.

Dry Bak Kut Teh

Bold and savoury, featuring dried cuttlefish imported from Malaysia and fragrant wok character.

Singaporean-style Bak Kut Teh

Tender pork ribs simmered in a herbal broth, served with crispy pork skin, braised pork belly, tofu and shiitake.

Pork Fried Ribs

Savoury pork ribs, tender inside and crisp outside, seasoned with fragrant spices.

THE DINING EXPERIENCE

Made for sharing.

Beyond Bak Kut Teh, discover sweet & sour pork ribs, salted fish pork belly, Thai-style snacks and Cubbi coffee and tea.

FAMILIAR FLAVOURS. SHARED MOMENTS.

OUR SPACE & IDENTITY

A little Klang, in every detail.
